

IHCF Staff

Tom Carr, Executive Director

Tom has served as the Executive Director of IHCF African Christian Hospitals since August of 2005. At least twice a year, he leads groups to Africa to visit the clinics and hospitals we support. Before coming to IHCF, he was the Vice President of a college in Virginia and has 20 years of experience in nonprofit work previous to that. Tom holds degrees from Harding University and Florida State University. He and his wife, Lisa, have four children and live in Searcy, Arkansas.

Glenn Boyd, President Emeritus

Before working with IHCF, Glenn spent 5 years as a full time preacher in Ohio, served for 16 years as a full time missionary in Germany, and directed an overseas program for Pepperdine University, where he taught German for 8 years after returning to the states. Glenn served as the President of IHCF for 20 years and currently remains involved as President Emeritus. He continues to oversee IHCF's medical scholarship program that has benefited over 100 African doctors and nurses. Glenn holds 2 Bachelors degrees, 4 Masters Degrees, and a Doctorate in Missiology. He and his wife Shirley, now deceased, have 3 children, 6 grandchildren, and 5 great-grandchildren.
